Mr. Kirkbride asked if it was correct that once they go through this procedure it takes 45 days before they can be adopted, and that the increase would not come into effect for quite some time — approximately three months.

Mr. Fox replied that they must be held for 45 days before they may be filed with the Secretary of State.

Mr. Abrams moved that the Public Hearing on the Local Laws be held in front of the Chairman of the Board of Supervisors at 10:00 A. M. December 29, 1972. The motion was seconded by Mr. Curtis and unanimously approved.

Several guests were introduced, including former Supervisors and Town Officers.

On a motion by Mr. Curtis the Board adjourned.

The Clerk read the notice of Public Hearing on Local Laws No. 1 thru 4 for the Year 1972 and presented proof of publication.

Mr. Michael Curran spoke against raising salaries in general and criticized many procedures and functions of County government.

Mr. Maurice Mahoney spoke on behalf of the Seaverton Taxpayer's Association in opposition to the raise in salary for the Welfare Commissioner and the Commissioners of Elections. Mr. Mahoney had several comments regarding County salaries not included in the Local Laws.

Mrs. Helen Phalen, Commissioner of Elections, spoke in defense of the raising of the salaries of the Commissioners of Elections.

There being no one else wishing to speak, Chairman Livingston declared the Public Hearing adjourned at 10:40 A. M.
