SLC Youth Bureau Announces Openings on Youth Advisory Board

CANTON, NY —The St. Lawrence County Youth Bureau is currently seeking dedicated adults who work with or support youth to serve on the St. Lawrence County Youth Advisory Board.

The Youth Advisory Board plays a vital role in strengthening positive youth development efforts across the county. Members provide guidance and input on youth programs, services, and funding priorities, ensuring that local youth voices and needs are thoughtfully represented in county-level decision making.

“The Youth Advisory Board is an important bridge between our community partners and the Youth Bureau,” said Alexa Backus Chase, Director of the St. Lawrence County Youth Bureau. “We are looking for individuals who are passionate about supporting young people and who want to help shape programs and investments that make a lasting difference in the lives of youth across St. Lawrence County.”

Youth Advisory Board members:

- Support and advise Youth Development Programs, initiatives, and funding priorities
- Provide input on youth needs, services, and community opportunities
- Help guide local investments in programs that strengthen positive youth development
- Partner with the Youth Bureau to support impactful youth initiatives

The Board meets quarterly in Canton and collaborates with community partners to enhance services and opportunities for youth throughout the county.

Adults representing education, human services, nonprofit organizations, youth-serving agencies, civic groups, and other sectors are encouraged to apply. Individuals with a strong commitment to youth engagement, leadership development, and community collaboration are especially welcome.

Interested individuals are invited to request a Bio-Data Form by contacting Alexa Chase by emailing AChase@stlawco.gov or 315-379-9464. Individuals are also welcome to attend the Youth Advisory Board’s next meeting scheduled for Tuesday, May 12th at 5:30 pm.
